-Walmart actually sells those Christmas overalls.

The "nature valley bar with a string hanging out of it" is a used tampon.

-I spend too much time waiting in line at Walmartthats where the time goesalong with looking for items in the wrong area

-21:50 I live in such a small town (less than 200 people) that we dont even have a dollar general. We have a post office that is open an hour a day, and thats it. We go to the next town (couple thousand population) for things like groceries, call it driving into town and no Walmart there either, but there is a Family Dollar. We gotta drive more than 25 miles to get to a Walmart. (I think it is about 45 minutes drive) For entertainment, we play either computer games at home or have bonfires.

-A SC Walmart has had one since I moved there in 2005. It's around the N Charleston area.
Sorry I can't be more precise. I just took a couple of hits off my pipe.

-Wal- Mart loses billions.. yup.. billions to shoplifting every year..
Imagine those stores with their own police .. which is coming.
Ask a cop.. they are always at Walmart doing their security for them..

-Bill, you are really funny. But why are all the bits making fun of white people? Especially the Walmart thing.

-Question for Walmart checkers:

If I was a cleanshaven middle-aged white man in a suit and tie who gave you a $100 bill at the checkout, with other customers watching, would you INSULT me by putting my $100 bill up to the lights to look to see if it looks FAKE?

Or would you give me an 'automatic pass' just because I'm a cleanshaven middle-aged white man in a suit and tie??

-Target ain't Walmart.

-Walmart is
